

Discovering Revelation Part 42

Revelation 20:1-3

1. _____: This view holds that Christ will establish His Kingdom at the end of the 1,000 years! That through Christian influence, society will continue to improve until it reaches a utopian like state. This means that believers will bring in the millennial kingdom. That Christ will return after this general period of peace and prosperity has been established.

2. _____: This view believes the millennial kingdom is not a future thousand-year kingdom on earth. Rather, it is a spiritual kingdom that refers to Christ's rule in the hearts of His people during this present church age!
Some amillennialism believe the millennial kingdom is a literal kingdom in Heaven, where Christ's saints rule with Him. But they reject the notion of a future, physical kingdom on earth.

3. _____: The millennial kingdom refers to a future, physical kingdom that Christ will establish at His return. The kingdom, which will be centered in Jerusalem will last for 1,000 years, after which this world will be destroyed and replaced by a new earth.
